

Stockholm Arbitration Scholarships for China

SCHOLARSHIPS for CHINESE LAW GRADUATES TO STUDY ARBITRATION LAW IN STOCKHOLM

The Master of International Commercial Arbitration Law program (ICAL) at Stockholm University is pleased to announce that three full-tuition scholarships have been generously donated by three leading Swedish law firms: Gernandt & Danielsson, Mannheimer Swartling, and Vinge.

The scholarships will enable three highly qualified Chinese students to participate in the one-year LLM, post-graduate program in Stockholm, Sweden at Stockholm University. The Master of International Commercial Arbitration Law program provides a truly international and comparative study of arbitration law from both theoretical and practical perspectives. The ICAL program brings together about thirty exceptional young lawyers from all regions of the world each year to engage in an interactive program taught by academics and leading practitioners.

The program also gives students the unique opportunity to learn beyond the classroom by engaging in the Stockholm international arbitration community. Stockholm is globally recognized as one of the world's leading venues for arbitration and the home of the Arbitration Institute of Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.

Expand your knowledge and professional skills by joining this highly-regarded program, which celebrates its tenth anniversary this coming year. Graduates of Chinese law schools are welcome to apply for the full-tuition scholarships. Information about the scholarships and the ICAL program may be obtained by contacting:

Christian Todoran: Christian.Todoran@juridicum.su.se

And by visiting the program website:

http://www.juridicum.su.se/jurweb/utbildning/master_programmes.asp?lang=eng

ARBITRATION INSTITUTE OF THE STOCKHOLM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC) was established in 1917 and is one of the major international arbitral institutions in the world. The SCC has long been recognised as a neutral venue for the resolution of East West disputes and today attracts parties and arbitrators from countries all over the world to resolve a broad-range of disputes.

MANNHEIMER SWARTLING

Mannheimer Swartling is the largest Swedish law firm and represented in China with offices in Shanghai and Hong Kong. These offices employ between them 23 lawyers, of whom 12 are Chinese legal consultants. Mannheimer Swartling's presence in China enables the firm to offer its Nordic clients experience and in-depth knowledge of the Chinese market, combined with an understanding of the needs and perspectives of Nordic companies. It is also a first port of call for Chinese companies looking to invest in the Nordic region, providing practical and easily accessible advice on all aspects of Nordic law and business culture.

The firm's Chinese dispute resolution group focuses on international arbitration proceedings involving companies and organisations in China and other Asian countries. Members of the group represent clients in disputes under the rules of all major arbitral institutions, including the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), ICC, HKIAC, CIETAC and UNCITRAL.

International commercial law is becoming increasingly complex and requires ever more resources. Only a handful of Scandinavian law firms can successfully keep up with the current competition. Vinge is one of them.

Vinge has one of the largest international arbitration groups in Scandinavia. Our international and multi-lingual team handles complex disputes of many kinds, both in Sweden and in other leading seats of arbitration. We have long experience of arbitrations under SCC, ICC, LCIA, HKIAC, CIETAC, UNICTRAL and other international arbitration rules.

Our senior consultant, Johan Gernandt, has been involved in many Chinese-related arbitrations since 1983, both as lead counsel and as arbitrator. He is also a CIETAC-registered arbitrator. With Chinese lawyers based in Stockholm and Shanghai, Vinge is particularly well placed to handle Chinese disputes.

Gernandt & Danielsson

Gernandt & Danielsson is one of Sweden's leading law firms in domestic and international commercial law.

The law firm represents clients in Sweden and abroad both in large commercial transactions and disputes, and also provides general legal advice. Since the firm was founded in 1992, our practice has been expanding continuously. Approximately 100 employees work at the firm. Our practice is conducted in offices located in central Stockholm.